DATE OF ELECTION A MONTH EARLIER

Commissioners Change Time to Vote on Hospital Question From Mar.
25 to Feb. 25

THE FIRST ROAD IS ORDERED

Board Advertises For Bidders For Lafayette Peck et al. Highway in Orange Feb. 15

The county commissioners changed the date for the county hospital election from March 25 to Tuesday, February 25, shortly before adjourning late yesterday afternoon.

The date for the special election, which was ordered yesterday by the commissioners after the county council made it known they would appropriate the necessary funds to pay the expenses, was moved up a month because no necessity was seen for holding it off until the latter part of March, since there is ample time to give it the proper legal advertisement.

It is possible that the $2,000 for the expenses of the election, which will be appropriated by the county council, will not be needed if a bill which will be introduced in the state senate in Indianapolis, is passed. This bill will provide that in special elections to determine whether or not a county hospital shall be built, there need be only two men on the election boards. This will in no way damage the cause because there will be only one ballot and only one question to vote on, so that the count can be easily accomplished. The bill will also provide that wherever possible election officers who will serve for nothing, should be obtained.

The county council was expected to be in session again this afternoon in the auditor's office to finally pass the appropriations, amounting in all to $22,790.05, which were passed on first reading yesterday. It was necessary for the council to meet again today because of the state law which provides that a county council shall not appropriate more than $15,000 in any one day. It was not expected there would be any material change in the appropriations as adopted yesterday. Chief among the items were $10,000 for redecorating the interior of the court house, $2,000 for the special election and $640.05 for the county agent next year.

The county commissioners yesterday afternoon ordered the first road constructed since the war ended. They approved the petition of Lafayette Peck and others of Orange township for an improved highway and instructed the county auditor to advertise for bidders. The bids will be opened Saturday afternoon, February 15 at two o'clock.

The commissioners also advertised for bids, to be accepted the same day, for the five new bridges, for which the county council yesterday approved appropriations. The five bridges and the estimated cost of each are as follows: Omar Stevens bridge in Noble township, $850; Elijah Matney, Noble, $1,800; W. A. Norris, Noble, $500; Jeff Dalrymple, Center, $4,000; Frank Lee, Ripley, $3,000.

The commissioners also appointed Frank M. Huddleson and James H. Davis, Jr., reviewers, and Frank Catt engineer, on the John G. Beale et al. road in Rushville township because the contractors, W. J. Neidhardt & Company have failed to carry out their contract to build the road.

Neidhardt and company were instructed to appear before the board yesterday and show cause why their contract to build the road should not be rescinded, cancelled or worked. When they failed to put in an appearance, the reviewers were appointed.

A. L. Tribble was also notified to

SILENT ABOUT PORTUGAL

Dispatches Tell Little Today of Monarchical Fight

(By United Press.)

Paris, Jan. 23.—Silence today hung over the situation in Portugal where monarchists are fighting to restore former King Manuel to the throne.

Portuguese officials here declared that all direct communication with their country had been severed. The only advices reaching here were rumors coming from Madrid. The whereabouts of Manuel were unknown.

Madrid, Jan. 23.—The monarchical movement in Portugal has assumed a more serious character, a dispatch reported today.

MISAPPROPRIATION OF FUNDS ALLEGED

Otis Jones of Indianapolis, Formerly of This City, Arrested on
Two Counts For Embezzlement

KEPT MONEY FROM AUTO SALE

Otis Jones, formerly of this city, who was arrested in Indianapolis yesterday on a charge of embezzlement, was released on bond this morning when he pleaded not guilty before Squire J. P. Stech.

The charge on which Jones was arrested was filed by Noah Tryon, but before he was arraigned, a similar charge was filed by Herman Tompkins. Jones' trial was set for Friday, February 7, at 9 a. m.

It is alleged in the affidavit by Tryon that Jones agreed to sell an automobile for Tryon, and that he was to keep all over $200 of the selling price. Jones has never made any settlement at all, it is declared by Tryon.

Tompkins alleges that Jones sold three automobiles for him and never made an accounting of any sort. Jones is said to owe Tompkins approximately $750 on the machines which he disposed of and is accused of appropriating the money to his own use.

FORMER MANILLA BOY IS KILLED IN ACTION

Howard Cherry Loses Life October
31. According to Word Received by His Sister

WAS IN MANY HARD BATTLES

Howard Edward Cherry, former Manilla boy, was killed in action October 31, according to word just received by his sister, Mrs. Hazel Freidman of Indianapolis, and telephoned to his father and widow in Shelbyville. Cherry was born and reared in Manilla, but the last four or five years of his life before he entered the service were spent in Shelbyville and Haughville, a suburb of Indianapolis.

The official government telegram received by his sister was delayed, owing to his name being given as Edward H. Cherry at first, accounting for the lateness of the report. He left Shelbyville with a draft increment on June 22, 1918, being sent to Camp Sherman, O. He was there six weeks and then left for Camp Mills, N. J., from where after a week, he sailed overseas with the 335th Infantry. He was in the hardest battles of the great American drive, of which he had written his relatives.

Besides his father and widow he is survived by his mother, Mrs. Hester Brooks, of Indianapolis, and two sisters, Mrs. Freidman and Mrs. Roy Babcock, of Indianapolis. His brother, Jack Cherry, is in service stationed at Camp Fremont, Cal.

PUNISHMENT FOR KAISER DISCUSSED

Supreme War Council Expected to Adopt U. S. Suggestion For Investigating Commission

TO INVESTIGATE THE CAUSE

Now Believed Indemnities Will be Limited to Reparation For Damages
Done by Huns

(By United Press.)

Paris, Jan. 23.—Punishment for the kaiser and his associates was discussed by the supreme war council today. Belief prevails that the council will adopt the program suggested by the United States commissioners for the appointment of a special commission to investigate the causes for the war from the kaiser on down.

It was expected the various forms of punishment will be taken up simultaneously.

In connection with the discussion of responsibility and punishment for individuals, the penalty for the German nation was also considered.

It is not accepted that indemnities will be limited to reparation for damages but the huge sum these are expected to amount to will constitute a national penalty.

Others matters considered were international labor legislation, the procedure under which territorial questions will be taken up and the international status of courts, waterways and railways.

The Russian problem appeared to be well on the way to solution today.

The action of the supreme war council in voting partial recognition of the Soviet government, together with other political and other military factions, was accepted as paving the way for amiable adjustment of Russian affairs.

Paris newspapers today took widely different views of the action of the council on the Russian question.

"President Wilson's idea was great and bold," said the Matin. "The future will prove whether it is practical and fruitful."

"The decision will cause a painful impression in France," according to the Journal. "It constitutes implicit acknowledgement of the Bolshevik government."

"With the deepest joy the socialists and democrats will read Pres. Wilson's proposal," said the Humanite. "It is an extremely useful preface to the league of nations."

Until negotiations in February have revealed what success the associated governments may expect from their plan to unite the Russian factions and bring them into the peace conference, the supreme council will devote virtually its entire attention to developing the machinery for a league of nations.

The policy, as outlined by President Wilson, for dealing with the Russian situation invites representatives of all elements, including the Bolsheviks, to meet a joint commission of the associated powers at Princess island, in the Sea of Marmora, February 15. In the meantime military operations are to be suspended under a truce.

The joint mission will inform the Russian delegations of four conditions regarded as necessary to a satisfactory adjustment—peace at all points, removal of economic barriers that prevent the free circulation or exchange of food and commodities between the contending zones and the outside world, general elections on a representative basis, and some adequate arrangement for the payment of debts.

Regarding Russia's foreign debt, unofficial sources declare assurances have been given that the Bolsheviks will not carry out their threat to repudiate the obligations in consideration for economic relief from the associated governments. A

AMENDMENT IS LOST IN HOUSE

Effort to Prevent Teaching of Any Foreign Language in Grade
Schools is Failure

TACKLED ON TO GERMAN BILL

Hagerty is Rebuked by Vote of Senate When he Criticizes W.
H. Book's Prayer

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 23.—An effort to prevent the teaching of any foreign language in the grade schools made in the house today failed. Rep. Smith introduced an amendment to the Lowe bill which provides for the repeal of the law permitting the teaching of German, so that teaching of all foreign languages in the grade schools would be prohibited. The amendment was lost.

Among important bills introduced today were:

By Newman—To abolish the public service commission; by Day—To amend the workmen's compensation law to make it compulsory on certain business and increasing the allowance for injured persons; by Kimmel—To permit the attorney general to go into any county and prosecute felonies if the prosecuting attorney fails in his duty; by Symons—Creating separate department of banking and allowing the governor to appoint a state banking commissioner.

In the senate Sen. Bracken introduced a bill appropriating $250,000 for establishment of a farm colony for feeble minded. A bill providing that all vehicles must stop before crossing a railway was presented by Rep. Behmer.

The Johnson bill providing for presidential suffrage for women was passed to third reading in the house and probably will come to a vote tomorrow.

Senator Hagerty started a lively squabble in the senate immediately after the session opened. Prayer was offered by the Rev. W. H. Book of Columbus, Ind. In it he congratulated the senators in their action on the federal prohibition amendment. As soon as he finished Hagerty arose and bitterly denounced the prayer.

"We need no paid representative of the Anti-saloon League to congratulate us on our action on the dry amendment," said Hagerty.

Lieut. Gov. Bush, who was presiding, objected to Hagerty's remarks. Senator Duffy introduced a resolution thanking the Rev. Mr. Book for the prayer. Bush refused permission to Hagerty to speak on the resolution and it was carried 42 to 2 with Kolsen voting with Hagerty and two senators not voting.

Rep. Swain introduced a bill legalizing the acts of the state council of defense and appropriating $100,000 to pay expenses which it has incurred.

WILL USE GERMAN LINERS

United States Will Devote Them to Transporting Troops

Paris, Jan. 23.—The United States will get the use of all the great German liners in German ports for repatriation of American troops, it was learned today.

The Germans will be paid the usual scale of remuneration for use of their ships. Their property rights will be unaffected and the ships will be returned to them when peace is signed.

ELMER MAY ASKS A DIVORCE

Files Suit Against Katie May, Demanding Children's Custody

Elmer May has filed suit in the circuit court against Katie May for a divorce and custody of their two children, alleging abandonment. They were married at Vermilion Jennings county, July 17, 1909 and separated yesterday. The plaintiff alleges his wife left him four years ago, taking the children, to go to Vernon ostensibly for a visit with her mother. She did not return, the complaint says, until May went after her, accompanied by an attorney, and persuaded her to come home. Since that time she has made frequent visits to her mother's, May alleges, the last time leaving him when he was sick and unable to care for himself. Mays says his wife is extravagant.

ARLINGTON MAN ACCUSED OF ARSON

Edward Alsman is Charged in Grand Jury Indictment With Burning
His Father's House

RELEASED ON $1,000 BOND

Edward Alsman of Arlington is at liberty under $1,000 bond after having pleaded not guilty in circuit court yesterday to a charge of arson preferred in a grand jury indictment.

Alsman is accused of "feloniously, willfully and maliciously" setting fire to and burning a dwelling house in Arlington belonging to his father, Drury H. Alsman. The indictment says the alleged offense was committed on July 24, 1916 and that the house was valued at $800. Alsman was arrested for the same offense several months ago but nothing was ever done with the case. An affidavit was filed against him before.

The indictment against Alsman was one of three which the grand jury for the November term of the circuit court returned. The other two have not been made public as no arrests have been made.

The court has returned for $31.97 on principal and interest in the case of Harry H. Searle et al. against Jesse Crim, on a note for $100.

BOYS WELCOMED BACK TO CHURCH

Short Informal Program Held Following Evangelistic Services
by United Presbyterians

RESPONSE BY CAPT. GREEN

The Rev. J. S. Hill Delivers Sermon on the Subject, "The Unchanging Christ"

The First United Presbyterian church was filled last night for the regular evangelistic service, and following the hour of the service, a reception was tendered to the soldiers of the congregation who have returned from military service. A short informal program was carried out, in which T. M. Green, the Rev. J. S. Hill, and the pastor made short talks welcoming the boys back to their homes and the church, telling them they had been much missed in the church while they were gone.

Captain Lowell M. Green responded to the words of welcome, and told something of the things he and the boys had experienced while away. He referred to the fact that some of those who sympathized with him when he was leaving, fearing he might not return, had passed away themselves—and that the chance for life in the army had been as good, or even better than at home. A delightful social hour followed, in the parlors of the church, during which refreshments were served.

At the regular evangelistic service preceding the welcome to soldiers, Rev. J. S. Hill of Richmond delivered a sermon on the subject, "The Unchanging Christ," speaking in part as follows:

"It is comforting in a changing world such as ours to read that there is one who is unchangeable. It is only of Deity that such an affirmation can be made. Unchangeableness is neither possible nor desirable in mere man. Change is one feature of human progress. It would seem that change and inconsistency are essentials of human greatness. Paul was inconsistent with his early training and origin when he preached Christ among the Gentiles.

"Luther was inconsistent with his vows and education when he nailed his declaration of principles to the doors of the church in Wittenburg, and Gladstone changed his politics frequently while prime minister of England.

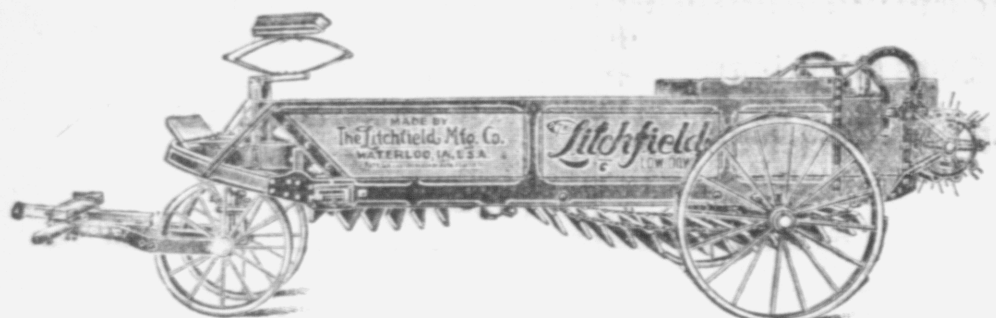

Change is a mark of our weakness. Imperfection makes change necessary. Only God is perfect, unchangeable and satisfying.

"From changing men we turn to Christ the unchanging Saviour. Time changes us but does not affect Him. Time touches us and the raven hair becomes streaked with the gray symptoms of decay. Our steps become feeble, our eyes dimmed, our forms stooped. What about Jesus Christ? Has time laid its finger upon Him? He is human as well as divine and is it not possible that in this respect He is subject to the same change as ourselves? Our text says No. He is the same yesterday, and today, and forever.

"Circumstances change us, but do not affect Him. When we are poor and in straitened circumstances, we are kind and considerate of one another. When fortune smiles upon us, we are apt to become forgetful of our friends in adversity. Our circumstances have changed and we have changed with them. When Joseph was in prison the chief butler promised to remember him when he was released. But when freedom came he forgot Joseph entirely. Christ's circumstances have changed marvelously. He is now at the right hand of the throne of God. Angels and archangels do His pleasure. The question arises, does He remember the world that crucified Him, or has He passed away beyond it, and all the things that concerned Him while

NECESSITY

Is The Mother Of Invention

The only really new principles in the spreader building in the last fifteen years were introduced by the Litchfield Mfg. Co., and are found on RUSHVILLE SPECIAL Spreaders. Everyone of them is of commanding importance.

First among these is the conveyor which can't clog or slip under a load. Look at the cut above and see the swinging sections. Any material leaking through from the load can't lodge, but drops to the ground. You can't find another one like it.

If you could look into the box you would see that the rear edge of every slat is raised just above the one preceding it, forming a traction cleat making it impossible for the conveyor to move back with taking the load with it, thus giving it a FORCE-FEED. This overcomes every objection to the endless apron and knocks into "SMITHEREENS" the arguments of the advocates of return aprons with attendant reverse gears, traps and triggers.

FIFTEEN YEARS FROM NOW after Litchfield's patents expire all other kinds of conveyors will be a thing of the past. What other spreaders will be in fifteen years from now the RUSHVILLE SPECIAL Spreader is today.

FIFTEEN YEARS FROM NOW all spreaders will be using the BULL DOG cylinder and NO CHOKE BOX—but we'll tell you about them later. Don't wait for us to tell you but come in and see the machine yourself. There are a whole lot of things about the RUSHVILLE SPECIAL Spreader that we cannot explain in print—we have to show you. IT'S GUARANTEED FOR FIVE YEARS!

CUT YOUR SHOE BILLS WITH NEOLIN SOLES

"For five months," says Mr. Evans, "I have been wearing the same pair of Neolin-soled shoes at my work at the La Belle Iron Works and they are good for two months more wear. As my work takes me to all parts of the mill daily where I have to walk over cinders, slag, etc., it is simply out of the question to buy anything else to take the place of Neolin Soles."

REDFIELD SEEKS AID OF EXPERIENCED MEN

Idea is to Utilize Broad Experience
of those Who Have Formed
Board's Working Machine.

NOT TO STAY IN WASHINGTON

Washington, Jan. 23.—Heads of industrial bureaus of the war industries board have been asked by Secretary of Commerce Redfield to form a board of industrial advisers to act as "informal ambassadors" of industry in its relations with the department. The idea is to utilize the broad experience of the men who have formed the board's working machinery during the war. It is not intended that they should remain in Washington permanently, but that they could be summoned or consulted when advisable.

President Wilson has made an allotment of $100,000 for carrying on in the Department of Commerce work heretofore handled by the conservation division of the war industries board. Secretary Redfield has asked Congress to appropriate a like amount to continue this work during the remainder of the fiscal year after the formal declaration of peace.

strong point of the position assumed by the supreme council is that in event of its rejection by the Bolsheviks, public opinion may be expected to support any measures necessary to restore order, while other Russian governments necessarily must comply with the offer as the price of allied support.

The proposal was dispatched by wireless to Russia last night. The personnel of the party from the peace conference will be announced as soon as the Russian factions have indicated their acceptance. As General Pershing has been summoned to Paris it is believed he will be one of the American representatives on the mission.

The meeting place is in a neutral zone as far as the Russian elements are concerned, and the time designated will permit deputations to arrive from the remote districts of Russia.

Fairbanks at Princess Today

From society dramas to photoplays of the road, is only an ordinary step for a screen star of the ability of Douglas Fairbanks and as a result of this versatility, the athletic and smiling Artcraft star will be seen in the role of a tramp in his new photoplay, "He Comes Up Smiling," which will be displayed at the Princess theatre tonight and tomorrow night.

In the role of Jerry Martin, "The Watermelon," Mr. Fairbanks has developed a real character, filled with such whimsicalities that it fairly bristles with fun. The Fairbanksian smile and athletics are in evidence every instant and it is said that the attention of the audience does not lag for an instant from the time Jerry is seen chasing a canary, until the final scene when he takes his pretty little Billy to his heart.

Mystery Story at Mystic

Where is Charlie Ross? What became of the little Philadelphia boy who so mysteriously disappeared over a quarter of a century ago and has not been heard of since? Although the case is one unsolved mystery in eastern police annals, it is believed by veteran officers that have worked on the case that the child was taken by the agents of the Italian vendetta, the most terrible and infallible secret society of ages.

If you would see the solemnity with which the sworn agents of this society set about to do the bidding of their conscience, go to the Mystic theatre tonight and see Fritz Brunette in "The Velvet Hand," her brilliant Bluebird photodrama. The story is from the pen of Edith Barrard Delano and was produced at the Bluebird studios under the direction of Douglas Gerrard.

Friday Harry Carey will be shown in "Three Mounted Men," a story connected with one of the great penal institutions.

Public Diplomacy.

There is nothing remarkable in the fact that the demand for full and free publicity in connection with the peace conference should have come mainly from the press representatives of the United States and Great Britain, while the press of France, Japan and other countries was disposed to acquiesce in a strictly limited policy.

This difference of viewpoint did not necessarily indicate that either the government or the press of any country represented was in favor of "secret diplomacy" in the old, evil sense. What they want is presumably just about what the government press and people of Britain and America want—an honest international arrangement, not qualified and

To do what is right isn't something to brag about.

The road to Shelbyville must have been laid out with a corkscrew.

The beautiful thing about failure is that it teaches you something you ought to know.

Laugh when you lose, be modest when you win, do the best you can, and let it go at that.

To young ladies: If you lover wears a moustache, watch him eat soup before you marry him.

Hez Heck says: "A doctor is one who has much guessing to do—and occasionally guesses right."

You had better enjoy life while you have it. You can never get away from this world and take it along.

undermined by secret treaties and understanding, but adopted in good faith, with the knowledge and approval of the public in every country concerned.

The difference revealed in mainly one of method. The Anglo-Saxon idea is to have everything openly discussed and understood, as plans advance step by step, the public co-operating with the government in mutual expressions of opinion, until the final, completed program is ready for adoption. The French idea—we might almost say, the idea of all the other nations—is to have less publicity from day to day, less inquiry into the actual processes by which the peace delegates arrive at their conclusions, but official statements from time to time of the conclusions reached, and eventual publication of the completed program.

Thus in either case the diplomacy would be technically "open," because the whole world would be informed as to the essentials of the treaty.

This difference of procedure, however, might naturally make a big difference in the conclusions arrived at. If the public is able to keep in touch with every important step taken by the conference from day to day, the public is far better able to check up the work of the conference and to make sure that its own sovereign will is expressed. It is ground for congratulation, therefore, that the conference has yielded considerably to the British-American demand for greater freedom of report and comment.

The whole business seems primarily one of journalistic custom and tradition. British and American newspapers are used to "printing everything." Newspapers in nearly all other countries print infinitely less of what we consider "news" and are far more subject to the reticence imposed by political and social custom.

A Tribute to Roosevelt.

Many suggestions are being made for a memorial to Theodore Roosevelt. And it is fitting that recognition be made of his services to his country.

But we would suggest a memorial to him which (if he could be cognizant of it) would please him more than any monument of bronze or granite.

Our idea would be that the nation should unite in carrying out a project which he had advocated for years and which was very near to his heart. We refer to universal military training.

Theodore Roosevelt felt that military training would be of inestimable value physically and mentally to every young man of America. He also knew that the nation would benefit greatly in having a disciplined force in readiness to be called upon in emergency.

No fitter tribute could be paid to the courageous and militant spirit of Roosevelt than the establishment of such a system.

The suddenness of Ex-President Roosevelt's death was characteristic of his entire life. When anything was to be done he did it. There was no delay nor shilly-shallying in his make-up.

We hear that the peace conference is to take up labor questions. It is to be feared that this will end its usefulness for peace, could not exist within two miles of a labor question.

The "movie" people are trying to get even with the legitimate drama. They refer to it by the irreverent title of "the speakies."

And now it is reported that Trotsky has put his associate Lenin in prison. The saying of French revolutionary times applies now to Russia—"The Revolution is devouring its own children."

The people in Germany seem at the present time to be divided between Sparta-cusses and Germanicusses.

DISCUSS PLAN TO TAKE OVER SCHOOLS

State Board of Normal School Trustees Meet with Superintendent Ellis Today.

FIVE ARE OFFERED TO STATE

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind. Jan. 23.—Propositions for taking over five privately conducted schools in Indiana by the state, were considered at a meeting of the state board of normal school trustees with superintendent of Public Instruction Ellis this afternoon.

The schools which have asked that the state take them over are: Vincennes university; Valparaiso university; Tristate Normal school; Winona college and Central Normal school at Danville.

The Tristate Normal school stock is owned by residents of Steuben county. It has been in operation thirty three years and has property valued at 200,000. If the state took over the school, the stock holders would have to be reimbursed.

However Winona college would be offered to the state without charge. Speaker Eschbach of the house was expected to attend the meeting this afternoon and offer the Winona institute to the trustees without any strings attached.

The legislature would have to approve of the taking over of Vincennes university, if the trustees find that it is advisable as the institution has previously received state aid.

A Soldier's Appreciation Of Delco-Light.

The Domestic Engineering Co.
Dayton, Ohio.

Gentlemen:

Perhaps you know what your products are doing in this world war, undoubtedly you do, but I will tell you a little of my experience with your Delco-Light Unit. We have a unit of which I am in charge, that charges batteries and furnishes lights for our works here at the lights for our works here at the

Since the first of March this Delco-Light has run on the average of 18 to 20 hours a day without the slightest trouble and it is now the first or nearly the first of November.

Delco-Light has not had the conditions under which it would have to work in the States or even back of the lines. It usually sits in the open, subject to the wind and rain, and nothing but two-inch boards to sit on and has a number of times had a narrow escape being hit by a shell.

We have used so far but two spark plugs and one was broken by moving the machine from place to place and besides we have to use any kind of gas and oil, but we must have lights and keep the battery charged always.

If a man complains of the service he gets from Delco-Light in the States, it must be because he doesn't use it enough.

By the way, I forgot to mention the fact that we have not had the machine down for the purpose of tightening the bearings. The only piece that has been taken from the machine is the cylinder head for the purpose of cleaning out the carbon which is not uncommon in any internal combustion engine. All of these facts I have mentioned I will testify are absolutely true and I would add a few more if I had the time. I have had several years' experience with different kinds of gas engines, mostly automobile engines, and the Delco-Light is surely the most wonderful outfit I have run across.

I enlisted to serve my country, but I will have to admit the Delco-Light engine and generator have done more for democracy than I have been able to do. I would be more than pleased to hear from you over here, and will surely visit your plant when I return.

Wishing you all the success in the world, I remain
(Signed) FLOYD BAGLEY, A. E. F.

GOVERNMENT IS WAITING ON DATA

In the Meantime State is Waiting on Government on Question of Reimbursing Guardsmen.

PROPOSAL BEFORE WATSON

Adj. Smith Says he is Ready to Supply Federal Government with the Information.

A situation exists with respect to reimbursement of former Indiana national guardsmen, including close to a hundred Rush county men, for outfits which they bought when they enlisted, which may result in the men not receiving the money which rightly belongs to them.

As it now stands, the state of Indiana is waiting on the government to act, believing the United States should pay for the uniforms which its representatives took from the guardsmen, and the war department with its customary show of "red tape", is waiting for "sufficient data".

It will be recalled that the agitation for reimbursing Indiana guardsmen for their uniforms, which were taken away from them when they entered the federal service, was started here when local soldiers at Camp Shelby, Miss., wrote home about this condition of affairs.

According to a dispatch from Washington, the question of having the federal government pay for the uniforms has been before Senator Watson for some time. This dispatch says because the proposal to have the government refund money did not give sufficient data in regard to the expenditures to base a claim against the government Senator Watson has not recently pushed the question.

The attitude of the War department has been that it did not have the authority to make the refund and that it would require special legislation, but the department has willingly, it is understood, to recommend the legislation on a detailed showing of facts.

The proposition to have the state pay for this equipment is an imposition on the state, as the government is responsible for the money spent. It is probable the matter could have been disposed of by this time had all the data in connection with the case been forwarded to Senator Watson, as he requested some time ago.

Harry B. Smith, adjutant-general of Indiana, today said that the reason Indiana has not taken action already to provide out of its own means money to reimburse soldiers for the cost of their uniforms, is that Indiana is awaiting information from the war department as to how it regards the proposal that the federal government should stand the cost of the uniforms.

General Smith said that as soon as he learns that the war department sustains the contention here that the federal government should pay the bill, he will take steps at once to supply it with all the information obtainable, which the department may wish, to have the bills paid by the Federal government.

The adjutant-general said however, that it would be necessary to get in touch with the commanding officers of the units involved in the matter and that owing to the war situation the action might be hard to speed up.

HOOVER DENIES THE CHARGE

Says He Did Not Work in Interests of Big Packers

(By United Press.)

Paris, Jan. 23.—Herbert Hoover today flatly denied the charges made in the United States senate during the debate on the $100,000,000 food bill, that he had worked in the interests of the American packers.

Hoover ridiculed the idea that he had benefited the big packers. He declared that he worked to give American farmers a square deal and protect small packers. The attack on Hoover was made by enemies of the bill providing for $100,000,000 to feed European people other than enemies. Hoover was assailed as the man who will have charge of spending the money.

EIGHT PAGES TODAY

DATE OF ELECTION A MONTH EARLIER

Commissioners Change Time to Vote on Hospital Question From Mar. 25 to Feb. 25

THE FIRST ROAD IS ORDERED

Board Advertises For Bidders For Lafayette Peck et al. Highway in Orange Feb. 15

The county commissioners changed the date for the county hospital election from March 25 to Tuesday, February 25, shortly before adjourning late yesterday afternoon.

The date for the special election, which was ordered yesterday by the commissioners after the county council made it known they would appropriate the necessary funds to pay the expenses, was moved up a month because no necessity was seen for holding it off until the latter part of March, since there is ample time to give it the proper legal advertisement.

It is possible that the $2,000 for the expenses of the election, which will be appropriated by the county council, will not be needed if a bill which will be introduced in the state senate in Indianapolis, is passed. This bill will provide that in special elections to determine whether or not a county hospital shall be built, there need be only two men on the election boards. This will in no way damage the cause because there will be only one ballot and only one question to vote on, so that the count can be easily accomplished. The bill will also provide that wherever possible election officers who will serve for nothing, should be obtained.

The county council was expected to be in session again this afternoon in the auditor's office to finally pass the appropriations, amounting in all to $22,790.05, which were passed on first reading yesterday. It was necessary for the council to meet again today because of the state law which provides that a county council shall not appropriate more than $15,000 in any one day. It was not expected there would be any material change in the appropriations as adopted yesterday. Chief among the items were $10,000 for redecorating the interior of the court house, $2,000 for the special election and $640.05 for the county agent next year.

The county commissioners yesterday afternoon ordered the first road constructed since the war ended. They approved the petition of Lafayette Peck and others of Orange township for an improved highway and instructed the county auditor to advertise for bidders. The bids will be opened Saturday afternoon, February 15 at two o'clock.

The commissioners also advertised for bids, to be accepted the same day, for the five new bridges, for which the county council yesterday approved appropriations. The five bridges and the estimated cost of each are as follows: Omar Stevens bridge in Noble township, $850; Elijah Matney, Noble, $1,800; W. A. Norris, Noble, $500; Jeff Dalrymple, Center, $4,000; Frank Lee, Ripley, $3,000.

The commissioners also appointed Frank M. Huddleston and James H. Davis, Jr., reviewers, and Frank Catt engineer, on the John G. Beale et al. road in Rushville township because the contractors, W. J. Neidhardt & Company have failed to carry out their contract to build the road.

Neidhardt and company were instructed to appear before the board yesterday and show cause why their contract to build the road should not be rescinded, cancelled or worked. When they failed to put in an appearance, the reviewers were appointed.

SILENT ABOUT PORTUGAL

Dispatches Tell Little Today of Monarchical Fight

(By United Press.)

Paris, Jan. 23.—Silence today hung over the situation in Portugal where monarchists are fighting to restore former King Manuel to the throne.

Portuguese officials here declared that all direct communication with their country had been severed. The only advices reaching here were rumors coming from Madrid. The whereabouts of Manuel were unknown.

Madrid, Jan. 23.—The monarchical movement in Portugal has assumed a more serious character, a dispatch reported today.

MISAPPROPRIATION OF FUNDS ALLEGED

Otis Jones of Indianapolis, Formerly of This City, Arrested on Two Counts For Embezzlement

KEPT MONEY FROM AUTO SALE

Otis Jones, formerly of this city, who was arrested in Indianapolis yesterday on a charge of embezzlement, was released on bond this morning when he pleaded not guilty before Squire J. P. Stech.

The charge on which Jones was arrested was filed by Noah Tryon, but before he was arraigned, a similar charge was filed by Herman Tompkins. Jones' trial was set for Friday, February 7, at 9 a. m.

It is alleged in the affidavit by Tryon that Jones agreed to sell an automobile for Tryon, and that he was to keep all over $200 of the selling price. Jones has never made any settlement at all, it is declared by Tryon.

Tompkins alleges that Jones sold three automobiles for him and never made an accounting of any sort. Jones is said to owe Tompkins approximately $750 on the machines which he disposed of and is accused of appropriating the money to his own use.

FORMER MANILLA BOY IS KILLED IN ACTION

Howard Cherry Loses Life October 31. According to Word Received by His Sister

WAS IN MANY HARD BATTLES

Howard Edward Cherry, former Manilla boy, was killed in action October 31, according to word just received by his sister, Mrs. Hazel Freidman of Indianapolis and telephoned to his father and widow in Shelbyville. Cherry was born and reared in Manilla, but the last four or five years of his life before he entered the service were spent in Shelbyville and Hanghville, a suburb of Indianapolis.

The official government telegram received by his sister was delayed, owing to his name being given as Edward H. Cherry at first, accounting for the lateness of the report. He left Shelbyville with a draft increment on June 22, 1918, being sent to Camp Sherman, O. He was there six weeks and then left for Camp Mills, N. J., from where after a week, he sailed overseas with the 335th Infantry. He was in the hardest battles of the great American drive, of which he had written his relatives.

Besides his father and widow he is survived by his mother, Mrs. Hester Brooks, of Indianapolis, and two sisters, Mrs. Freidman and Mrs. Roy Babcock, of Indianapolis. His brother, Jack Cherry, is in service stationed at Camp Fremont, Cal.

PUNISHMENT FOR KAISER DISCUSSED

Supreme War Council Expected to Adopt U. S. Suggestion For Investigating Commission

TO INVESTIGATE THE CAUSE

Now Believed Indemnities Will be Limited to Reparation For Damages Done by Huns

(By United Press.)

Paris, Jan. 23.—Punishment for the kaiser and his associates was discussed by the supreme war council today. Belief prevails that the council will adopt the program suggested by the United States commissioners for the appointment of a special commission to investigate the causes for the war from the kaiser on down.

It was expected the various forms of punishment will be taken up simultaneously.

In connection with the discussion of responsibility and punishment for individuals, the penalty for the German nation was also considered.

It is not accepted that indemnities will be limited to reparation for damages but the huge sum there are expected to amount to will constitute a national penalty.

Others matters considered were international labor legislation, the procedure under which territorial questions will be taken up and the international status of courts, waterways and railways.

The Russian problem appeared to be well on the way to solution today.

The action of the supreme war council in voting partial recognition of the Soviet government, together with other political and other military factions, was accepted as paving the way for amiable adjustment of Russian affairs.

Paris newspapers today took widely different views of the action of the council on the Russian question.

"President Wilson's idea was great and bold," said the Matin. "The future will prove whether it is practical and fruitful."

"The decision will cause a painful impression in France," according to the Journal. "It constitutes implicit acknowledgement of the Bolshevik government."

"With the deepest joy the socialists and democrats will read President Wilson's proposal," said the Humanite. "It is an extremely useful preface to the league of nations."

Until negotiations in February have revealed what success the associated governments may expect from their plan to unite the Russian factions and bring them into the peace conference, the supreme council will devote virtually its entire attention to developing the machinery for a league of nations.

The policy, as outlined by President Wilson, for dealing with the Russian situation invites representatives of all elements, including the Bolsheviks, to meet a joint commission of the associated powers at Princess island, in the Sea of Marmora, February 15. In the meantime military operations are to be suspended under a truce.

The joint mission will inform the Russian delegations of four conditions regarded as necessary to a satisfactory adjustment—peace at all points, removal of economic barriers that prevent the free circulation or exchange of food and commodities between the contending zones and the outside world, general elections on a representative basis, and some adequate arrangement for the payment of debts.

Regarding Russia's foreign debt, unofficial sources declare assurances have been given that the Bolsheviks will not carry out their threat to repudiate the obligations in consideration for economic relief from the associated governments. A

Effort to Prevent Teaching of Any Foreign Language in Grade Schools is Failure

TACKED ON TO GERMAN BILL

Hagerty is Rebuked by Vote of Senate When he Criticizes W. H. Book's Prayer

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 23.—An effort to prevent the teaching of any foreign language in the grade schools made in the house today failed. Rep. Smith introduced an amendment to the Lowe bill which provides for the repeal of the law permitting the teaching of German, so that teaching of all foreign languages in the grade schools would be prohibited. The amendment was lost.

Among important bills introduced today were:

By Newman—To abolish the public service commission; by Day—To amend the workmen's compensation law to make it compulsory on certain business and increasing the allowance for injured persons; by Kimmel—To permit the attorney general to go into any county and prosecute felonies if the prosecuting attorney fails in his duty; by Symons—Creating separate department of banking and allowing the governor to appoint a state banking commissioner.

In the senate Sen. Bracken introduced a bill appropriating $250,000 for establishment of a farm colony for feeble minded. A bill providing that all vehicles must stop before crossing a railway was presented by Rep. Behmer.

The Johnson bill providing for presidential suffrage for women was passed to third reading in the house and probably will come to a vote tomorrow.

Senator Hagerty started a lively squabble in the senate immediately after the session opened. Prayer was offered by the Rev. W. H. Book of Columbus, Ind. In it he congratulated the senators in their action on the federal prohibition amendment. As soon as he finished Hagerty arose and bitterly denounced the prayer.

"We need no paid representative of the Anti-saloon League to congratulate us on our action on the dry amendment," said Hagerty.

Lieut. Gov. Bush, who was presiding, objected to Hagerty's remarks. Senator Duffy introduced a resolution thanking the Rev. Mr. Book for the prayer. Bush refused permission to Hagerty to speak on the resolution and it was carried 42 to 2 with Kolsem voting with Hagerty and two senators not voting.

Rep. Swain introduced a bill legalizing the acts of the state council of defense and appropriating $100,000 to pay expenses which it has incurred.

United States Will Devote Them to Transporting Troops

Paris, Jan. 23.—The United States will get the use of all the great German liners in German ports for repatriation of American troops, it was learned today.

The Germans will be paid the usual scale of remuneration for use of their ships. Their property rights will be unaffected and the ships will be returned to them when peace is signed.

ELMER MAY ASKS A DIVORCE

Files Suit Against Katie May, Demanding Children's Custody

Elmer May has filed suit in the circuit court against Katie May for a divorce and custody of their two children, alleging abandonment. They were married at Vermilion Jennings county, July 17, 1909 and separated yesterday. The plaintiff alleges his wife left him four years ago, taking the children, to go to Vernon ostensibly for a visit with her mother. She did not return, the complaint says, until May went after her, accompanied by an attorney, and persuaded her to come home. Since that time she has made frequent visits to her mother's, May alleges, the last time leaving him when he was sick and unable to care for himself. Mays says his wife is extravagant.

ARLINGTON MAN ACCUSED OF ARSON

Edward Alzman is Charged in Grand Jury Indictment With Burning His Father's House

RELEASED ON $1,000 BOND

Edward Alzman of Arlington is at liberty under $1,000 bond after having pleaded not guilty in circuit court yesterday to a charge of arson preferred in a grand jury indictment.

Alzman is accused of "feloniously, wilfully and maliciously" setting fire to and burning a dwelling house in Arlington belonging to his father, Drury H. Alzman. The indictment says the alleged offense was committed on July 24, 1916 and that the house was valued at $800. Alzman was arrested for the same offense several months ago but nothing was ever done with the case. An affidavit was filed against him before.

The indictment against Alzman was one of three which the grand jury for the November term of the circuit court returned. The other two have not been made public as no arrests have been made.

The court has returned for $31.97 on principal and interest in the case of Harry H. Searle et al. against Jesse Grim, on a note for $100.

FIRST MEETING OF RELIEF CAMPAIGN

L. E. Brown Will Deliver Address to Jackson Township Audience Tomorrow Night

MEETING AT MANILLA SUNDAY

A meeting for Jackson township in the interests of the Armenian-Syrian relief campaign will be held at Osborn school tomorrow night at seven o'clock. The address will be delivered by the Rev. L. E. Brown of this city. All the people of Jackson township are invited to be present.

The Odd Fellows lodge announced today that a sum of money had been appropriated to the fund for relief in the Near East and other lodges are expected to follow their example.

Manilla is arranging for a big meeting in the interests of the campaign in Walker township and an Indianapolis minister will deliver the address. Capt. C. K. Morse of the Canadian army, who saw more than two years of service overseas, will address a mass meeting at the Main Street Christian church here Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

An immense amount of rivalry is expected to develop among the townships to see which shall be the first to reach its quota after the campaign begins officially Saturday.

BOYS WELCOMED BACK TO CHURCH

Short Informal Program Held Following Evangelistic Services by United Presbyterians

RESPONSE BY CAPT. GREEN

The Rev. J. S. Hill Delivers Sermon on the Subject, "The Unchanging Christ"

The First United Presbyterian church was filled last night for the regular evangelistic service, and following the hour of the service, a reception was rendered to the soldiers of the congregation who have returned from military service. A short informal program was carried out, in which T. M. Green, the Rev. J. S. Hill, and the pastor made short talks welcoming the boys back to their homes and the church, telling them they had been much missed in the church while they were gone.

Captain Lowell M. Green responded to the words of welcome, and told something of the things he and the boys had experienced while away. He referred to the fact that some of those who sympathized with him when he was leaving, fearing he might not return, had passed away themselves—and that the chance for life in the army had been as good, or even better than at home. A delightful social hour followed, in the parlors of the church, during which refreshments were served.

At the regular evangelistic service preceding the welcome to soldiers, Rev. J. S. Hill of Richmond delivered a sermon on the subject, "The Unchanging Christ," speaking in part as follows:

"It is comforting in a changing world such as ours to read that there is one who is unchangeable. It is only of Deity that such an affirmation can be made. Unchangeableness is neither possible nor desirable in mere man. Change is one feature of human progress. It would seem that change and inconsistency are essentials of human greatness. Paul was inconsistent with his early training and origin when he preached Christ among the Gentiles.

"Luther was inconsistent with his vows and education when he nailed his declaration of principles to the doors of the church in Wittenburg, and Gladstone changed his politics frequently while prime minister of England.

Change is a mark of our weakness. Imperfection makes change necessary. Only God is perfect, unchangeable and satisfying.

"From changing men we turn to Christ the unchanging Saviour. Time changes us but does not affect Him. Time touches us and the raven hair becomes streaked with the gray symptoms of decay. Our steps become feeble, our eyes dimmed, our forms stooped. What about Jesus Christ? Has time laid its finger upon Him? He is human as well as divine and is it not possible that in this respect He is subject to the same change as ourselves? Our text says No. He is the same yesterday, and today, and forever.

"Circumstances change us, but do not affect Him. When we are poor and in straitened circumstances, we are kind and considerate of one another. When fortune smiles upon us, we are apt to become forgetful of our friends in adversity. Our circumstances have changed and we have changed with them. When Joseph was in prison the chief butler promised to remember him when he was released. But when freedom came he forgot Joseph entirely. Christ's circumstances have changed marvelously. He is now at the right hand of the throne of God. Angels and archangels do His pleasure. The question arises, does He remember the world that crucified Him, or has He passed away beyond it, and all the things that concerned Him while

Is The Mother Of Invention

The only really new principles in the spreader building in the last fifteen years were introduced by the Litchfield Mfg. Co., and are found on RUSHVILLE SPECIAL Spreaders. Everyone of them is of commanding importance.

First among these is the conveyor which can't clog or slip under a load. Look at the cut above and see the swinging sections. Any material leaking through from the load can't lodge, but drops to the ground. You can't find another one like it.

If you could look into the box you would see that the rear edge of every slat is raised just above the one preceding it, forming a traction element making it impossible for the conveyor to move back with taking the load with it, thus giving it a FORCE-FEED. This overcomes every objection to the endless apron and knocks into "SMITHIERENS" the arguments of the advocates of return aprons with attendant reverse gears, traps and triggers.

FIFTEEN YEARS FROM NOW after Litchfield's patents expire all other kinds of conveyors will be a thing of the past. What other spreaders will be in fifteen years from now the RUSHVILLE SPECIAL Spreader is today.

FIFTEEN YEARS FROM NOW all spreaders will be using the BULL DOG cylinder and NO CHOKE BOX—but we'll tell you about them later. Don't wait for us to tell you but come in and see the machine yourself. There are a whole lot of things about the RUSHVILLE SPECIAL Spreader, that we cannot explain in print—we have to show you. IT'S GUARANTEED FOR FIVE YEARS!

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 23.—Sentiment among members of the legislature today seemed to favor repeal of the bill prohibiting moving picture shows and other theatrical performances on Sunday. Bills have been prepared allowing moving picture theaters to open at 2 o'clock on Sunday afternoons, which, according to indications, will receive favorable action despite protests from some church circles.

CUT YOUR SHOE BILLS WITH NEOLIN SOLES

"The answer to the problem of shoe wear lies in the use of Neolin Soles," so says H. L. Evans of Steubenville, Ohio.

"For five months," says Mr. Evans, "I have been wearing the same pair of Neolin-soled shoes at my work at the La Belle Iron Works and they are good for two months more wear. As my work takes me to all parts of the mill daily where I have to walk over cinders, slag, etc., it is simply out of the question to buy anything else to take the place of Neolin Soles."

You too—and your whole family—will find Neolin-soled shoes wear long and so save money. You can get them in the styles you like at almost any good shoe store. And any repairman will re-sole your worn shoes with Neolin Soles—scientifically made to be durable, comfortable and waterproof. They are made by The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company, Akron, Ohio, who also make Wingfoot Heels—guaranteed to out-wear any other heels.

REDFIELD SEEKS AID OF EXPERIENCED MEN

Idea is to Utilize Broad Experience
of those Who Have Formed
Board's Working Machine.

NOT TO STAY IN WASHINGTON

Washington, Jan. 23.—Heads of industrial bureaus of the war industries board have been asked by Secretary of Commerce Redfield to form a board of industrial advisers to act as "informal ambassadors" of industry in its relations with the department. The idea is to utilize the broad experience of the men who have formed the board's working machinery during the war. It is not intended that they should remain in Washington permanently, but that they could be summoned or consulted when advisable.

President Wilson has made an allotment of $100,000 for carrying on in the Department of Commerce work heretofore handled by the conservation division of the war industries board. Secretary Redfield has asked Congress to appropriate a like amount to continue this work during the remainder of the fiscal year after the formal declaration of peace.

strong point of the position assumed by the supreme council is that in event of its rejection by the Bolsheviks, public opinion may be expected to support any measures necessary to restore order, while other Russian governments necessarily must comply with the offer as the price of allied support.

The proposal was dispatched by wireless to Russia last night. The personnel of the party from the peace conference will be announced as soon as the Russian factions have indicated their acceptance. As General Pershing has been summoned to Paris it is believed he will be one of the American representatives on the mission.

The meeting place is in a neutral zone as far as the Russian elements are concerned, and the time designated will permit deputations to arrive from the remote districts of Russia.

Fairbanks at Princess Today

From society dramas to photoplays of the road, is only an ordinary step for a screen star of the ability of Douglas Fairbanks and as a result of this versatility, the athletic and smiling Artcraft star will be seen in the role of a tramp in his new photoplay, "He Comes up Smiling," which will be displayed at the Princess theatre tonight and tomorrow night.

In the role of Jerry Martin, "The Watermelon," Mr. Fairbanks has developed a real character, filled with such whimsicalities that it fairly bristles with fun. The Fairbanksian smile and athletics are in evidence every instant and it is said that the attention of the audience does not lag for an instant from the time Jerry is seen chasing a canary, until the final scene when he takes his pretty little Billy to his heart.

Mystery Story at Mystic

Where is Charlie Ross?

What became of the little Philadelphia boy who so mysteriously disappeared over a quarter of a century ago and has not been heard of since? Although the case is one unsolved mystery in eastern police annals, it is believed by veteran officers that have worked on the case that the child was taken by the agents of the Italian vendetta, the most terrible and infallible secret society of ages.

If you would see the solemnity with which the sworn agents of this society set about to do the bidding of their conscience, go to the Mystic theatre tonight and see Fritz Brunette in "The Velvet Hand," her brilliant Bluebird photodrama. The story is from the pen of Edith Barnard Delano and was produced at the Bluebird studios under the direction of Douglas Gerrard.

Friday Harry Carey will be shown in "Three Mounted Men," a story connected with one of the great penal institutions.

Public Diplomacy.

There is nothing remarkable in the fact that the demand for full and free publicity in connection with the peace conference should have come mainly from the press representatives of the United States and Great Britain, while the press of France, Japan and other countries was disposed to acquiesce in a strictly limited policy.

This difference of viewpoint did not necessarily indicate that either the government or the press of any country represented was in favor of "secret diplomacy" in the old, evil sense. What they want is presumably just about what the government press and people of Britain and America want—an honest international arrangement, not qualified and

Sap and Salt

By BERT MOSES

To do what is right isn't something to brag about.

The road to Shelbyville must have been laid out with a corkscrew.

The beautiful thing about failure is that it teaches you something you ought to know.

Laugh when you lose, be modest when you win, do the best you can, and let it go at that.

To young ladies: If you lover wears a moustache, watch him eat soup before you marry him.

Hez Heck says: "A doctor is one who has much guessing to do—and occasionally guesses right."

You had better enjoy life while you have it. You can never get away from this world and take it along.

undermined by secret treaties and understanding, but adopted in good faith, with the knowledge and approval of the public in every country concerned.

The difference revealed in mainly one of method. The Anglo-Saxon idea is to have everything openly discussed and understood, as plans advance step by step, the public co-operating with the government in mutual expressions of opinion, until the final, completed program is ready for adoption. The French idea—we might almost say, the idea of all the other nations—is to have less publicity from day to day, less inquiry into the actual processes by which the peace delegates arrive at their conclusions, but official statements from time to time of the conclusions reached, and eventual publication of the completed program.

Thus in either case the diplomacy would be technically "open", because the whole world would be informed as to the essentials of the treaty.

This difference of procedure, however, might naturally make a big difference in the conclusions arrived at. If the public is able to keep in touch with every important step taken by the conference from day to day, the public is far better able to check up the work of the conference and to make sure that its own sovereign will is expressed. It is ground for congratulation, therefore that the conference has yielded considerably to the British-American demand for greater freedom of report and comment.

The whole business seems primarily one of journalistic custom and tradition. British and American newspapers are used to "printing everything." Newspapers in nearly all other countries print infinitely less of what we consider "news" and are far more subject to the reticence imposed by political and social custom.

A Tribute to Roosevelt.

Many suggestions are being made for a memorial to Theodore Roosevelt. And it is fitting that recognition be made of his services to his country.

But we would suggest a memorial to him which (if he could be cognizant of it) would please him more than any monument of bronze or granite.

Our idea would be that the nation should unite in carrying out a project which he had advocated for years and which was very near to his heart. We refer to universal military training.

Theodore Roosevelt felt that military training would be of inestimable value physically and mentally to every young man of America. He also knew that the nation would benefit greatly in having a disciplined force in readiness to be called upon in emergency.

No fitter tribute could be paid to the courageous and militant spirit of Roosevelt than the establishment of such a system.

The suddenness of Ex-President Roosevelt's death was characteristic of his entire life. When anything was to be done he did it. There was no delay nor shilly-shallying in his make-up.

We hear that the peace conference is to take up labor questions. It is to be feared that this will end its usefulness for peace, could not exist within two miles of a labor question.

The "movie" people are trying to get even with the legitimate drama. They refer to it by the irreverent title of "the speakies."

And now it is reported that Trotsky has put his associate Lenin in prison. The saying of French revolutionary times applies now to Russia—"The Revolution is devouring its own children."

The people in Germany seem at the present time to be divided between Sparta-cusses and Germanic-cusses.

DISCUSS PLAN TO TAKE OVER SCHOOLS

State Board of Normal School Trustees Meet with Superintendent Ellis Today.

FIVE ARE OFFERED TO STATE

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind. Jan. 23.—Propositions for taking over five privately conducted schools in Indiana by the state, were considered at a meeting of the state board of normal school trustees with superintendent of Public Instruction Ellis this afternoon.

The schools which have asked that the state take them over are: Vincennes university; Valparaiso university; Tristate Normal school; Winona college and Central Normal school at Danville.

The Tristate Normal school stock is owned by residents of Steuben county. It has been in operation thirty three years and has property valued at 200,000. If the state took over the school, the stock holders would have to be reimbursed.

However Winona college would be offered to the state without charge. Speaker Eschbach of the house was expected to attend the meeting this afternoon and offer the Winona institute to the trustees without any strings attached.

The legislature would have to approve of the taking over of Vincennes university, if the trustees find that it is advisable as the institution has previously received state aid.

A Soldier's Appreciation Of Delco-Light.

The Domestic Engineering Co.
Dayton, Ohio.

Gentlemen:

Perhaps you know what your products are doing in this world war, undoubtedly you do, but I will tell you a little of my experience with your Delco-Light Unit. We have a unit of which I am in charge, that charges batteries and furnishes lights for our works here at the lights for our works here at the

Since the first of March this Delco-Light has run on the average of 18 to 20 hours a day without the slightest trouble and it is now the first or nearly the first of November.

Delco-Light has not had the conditions under which it would have to work in the States or even back of the lines. It usually sits in the open, subject to the wind and rain, and nothing but two-inch boards to sit on and has a number of times had a narrow escape being hit by a shell.

We have used so far but two spark plugs and one was broken by moving the machine from place to place and besides we have to use any kind of gas and oil, but we must have lights and keep the battery charged always.

If a man complains of the service he gets from Delco-Light in the States, it must be because he doesn't use it enough.

By the way, I forgot to mention the fact that we have not had the machine down for the purpose of tightening the bearings. The only piece that has been taken from the machine is the cylinder head for the purpose of cleaning out the carbon which is not uncommon in any internal combustion engine. All of these facts I have mentioned I will testify are absolutely true and I would add a few more if I had the time. I have had several years experience with different kinds of gas engines, mostly automobile engines, and the Delco-Light is surely the most wonderful outfit I have run across.

I enlisted to serve my country, but I will have to admit the Delco-Light engine and generator have done more for democracy than I have been able to do. I would be more than pleased to hear from you over here, and will surely visit your plant when I return.

Wishing you all the success in the world, I remain

(Signed) FLOYD BAGLEY, A. E. F.

GOVERNMENT IS WAITING ON DATA

In the Meantime State is Waiting on Government on Question of Reimbursing Guardsmen.

PROPOSAL BEFORE WATSON

Adj. Smith Says he is Ready to Supply Federal Government with the Information.

A situation exists with respect to reimbursement of former Indiana national guardsmen, including close to a hundred Rush county men, for outfits which they bought when they enlisted, which may result in the men not receiving the money which rightly belongs to them.

As it now stands, the state of Indiana is waiting on the government to act, believing the United States should pay for the uniforms which its representatives took from the guardsmen, and the war department with its customary show of "red tape", is waiting for "sufficient data".

It will be recalled that the agitation for reimbursing Indiana guardsmen for their uniforms, which were taken away from them when they entered the federal service, was started here when local soldiers at Camp Shelby, Miss., wrote home about this condition of affairs.

According to a dispatch from Washington, the question of having the federal government pay for the uniforms has been before Senator Watson for some time. This dispatch says because the proposal to have the government refund money did not give sufficient data in regard to the expenditures to base a claim against the government Senator Watson has not recently pushed the question.

The attitude of the War department has been that it did not have the authority to make the refund and that it would require special legislation, but the department has willingly, it is understood, to recommend the legislation on a detailed showing of facts.

The proposition to have the state pay for this equipment is an imposition on the state, as the government is responsible for the money spent. It is probable the matter could have been disposed of by this time had all the data in connection with the case been forwarded to Senator Watson, as he requested some time ago.

Harry B. Smith, adjutant-general of Indiana, today said that the reason Indiana has not taken action already to provide out of its own means money to reimburse soldiers for the cost of their uniforms, is that Indiana is awaiting information from the war department as to how it regards the proposal that the federal government should stand the cost of the uniforms.

General Smith said that as soon as he learns that the war department sustains the contention here that the federal government should pay the bill, he will take steps at once to supply it with all the information obtainable, which the department may wish, to have the bills paid by the Federal government.

The adjutant-general said, however, that it would be necessary to get in touch with the commanding officers of the units involved in the matter and that owing to the war situation the action might be hard to speed up.

HOOVER DENIES THE CHARGE

Says He Did Not Work in Interests of Big Packers

(By United Press.)

Paris, Jan. 23.—Herbert Hoover today flatly denied the charges made in the United States senate during the debate on the $100,000,000 food bill, that he had worked in the interests of the American packers.

Hoover ridiculed the idea that he had benefited the big packers. He declared that he worked to give American farmers a square deal and protect small packers. The attack on Hoover was made by enemies of the bill providing for $100,000,000 to feed European people other than enemies. Hoover was assailed as the man who will have charge of spending the money.
